You are the heart of me
My inspiration
And in your eyes I see
True love and admiration

Forever your lover and your friend
A promise on which you can depend
I'm faithfully yours till the end

You are the soul of me
My adoration
Through you I've finally seen
Love has no limitations

Forever your lover and your friend
A promise on which you can depend
I'm faithfully yours till the end

Bridge:

And as the evening draws near
I will hold you and know
You'll be here
When the morning reappears

And as our days turn to years
I will cherish
The moments we share
Till our tomorrows disappear

You are the world to me
My fascination
And I'm just glad that we
Both share this affirmation

Forever your lover and your friend
A promise on which you can depend
I'm faithfully yours till the end

You are the heart of me
My inspiration
Look in my eyes, you'll see
True love and admiration

Forever your lover and your friend
A promise on which you can depend
I'm faithfully yours till the end

Ending:

(You are the heart and soul of me)
I'm faithfully yours till the end
(You know you are the world to me)
I'm faithfully yours till the end
