

If You're Lookin' For Love

Words & Music by John Ryan
Copyright ©2005 John Ryan (ASCAP)
Published by Ryanwood Music (ASCAP)
Ryan Music Inc. (www.ryanmusic.com)

You've been anticipatin'
Lookin' for an invitation
I can see it in your eyes
But if it's just a night you're wantin'
Just another thrill forgotten
Don't be coming 'round here with your lies

But if you're lookin' for love, baby
I could have an open heart
And if you're lookin' for love, maybe
You and I may have a start

Call me crazy but I know it's out there
A love that feels as though it's sent from heaven above...
If you're lookin' at me, then you're lookin' for love

There may be a strong attraction
For giving in to satisfaction
We've both been there before
But before I give myself completely
I need to know you want to keep me
I'm not playing that game anymore

But if you're lookin' for love, baby
I could have an open heart
And if you're lookin' for love, maybe
You and I may have a start

So if you think you've got the time to show me
Time is something that I've got plenty of...
If you're gonna' have me, and you're looking for love

Call me crazy but I know it's out there
A love that feels as though it's sent from heaven above...
Come and find it with me, 'cause I'm lookin' for love